

ANIMAL WELFARE A PRIORITY AT CLOVERDALE RODEO AND COUNTRY FAIR

For Immediate Release

Surrey, B.C.: The Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair is a 59-year old pro-rodeo tradition that has been enjoyed by hundreds of thousands of people from across British Columbia, Canada and the world.

As one of the largest professional rodeos in North America, the Cloverdale Rodeo is at the forefront of many aspects of rodeo management, and is considered to be one of the leaders in the area of rodeo animal welfare practices.

As a sanctioned pro-rodeo tour event, the Cloverdale Rodeo upholds and aggressively enforces the rules and regulations governing the proper care and treatment of rodeo livestock, as set out by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), as well as the rules and regulations (Humane Treatment of Rodeo Livestock and prevention of injury) of the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association (CPRA).

The Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair welcomes and appreciates the professional working relationship with respected independent veterinarian Dr. Edward Wiebe, D.V.M. & Associates. These veterinarians volunteer their time, attend all rodeo performances and are onsite for any livestock attention. The Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair, as in past years, also welcomes the Society For The Prevention Of Cruelty To Animals (SPCA) to attend all rodeo performances during the rodeo weekend.

The 59th annual Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair will take place May 20th – 23rd at the Cloverdale Fairgrounds.
