

BRING YOUR FAMILY BACK TO TRADITION AT BC'S LARGEST COUNTRY FAIR

For Immediate Release

Surrey, B.C.: The 2005 Cloverdale Rodeo is not just for cowboys. It's for everybody! Guests visiting this event Friday, May 20th through Monday, May 23rd, will discover old-fashioned hospitality and home-baked treats at the Country Fair. Families will have the opportunity to make unforgettable memories by exploring the wonders of the country life.

Featured exhibits in the Country Fair will include cooking, baking and canning competitions, knitting, quilting and hand-made arts and crafts exhibitions, horticulture and livestock displays and much more.

Prizes will be awarded in dozens of categories ranging from the best-canned homemade jam to the best fruit loaf and apple pie.

Quilts, sweaters, cushions and more will be on display along with 30 categories of arts and crafts, including woodwork and collage. In the horticulture area view lots of exciting displays, including the forty categories of potted plants.

Of course, no Country Fair is complete without 4-H! Youths from local 4-H clubs will present interactive and educational displays on the secrets to growing and grooming. And don't forget Cloverdale's traditional livestock displays featuring dairy, beef, and much more.

All this, a full day of fun, is included in your fairgrounds admission price! Bring your family back to the country, May 20th – 23rd, 2005 at the Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair.
