Surrey, BC – Pro-rodeo tour event, the Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair returns to the Cloverdale Fairgrounds for a four-day action-packed rodeo and old-fashioned country fair May 20th – 23rd, 2005.

Families, rodeo fans, country music lovers and those who just know a good time when they see it are making the Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair, the place to be on the Victoria Day Weekend.

The Cloverdale Rodeo is one of the most popular on the professional rodeo tour, attracting top male and female contestants from across North America who compete for over $200,000 in prize money. The excitement and thrills of rodeo are undeniable. And no other venue gets you closer to the action than the Stetson Bowl on the Cloverdale Fairgrounds.

"Over the years the Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair has established a reputation with contestants and spectators alike, for putting on one of the premier rodeo events in this country," says Rodeo Chairman Penny Smythe.

The action packed weekend features other great family events such as horticulture and livestock displays, a lumberjack show, B.C.'s largest portable midway, and dozens of other great family attractions that are free with admission to the Country Fairgrounds.
