

TERASEN SPONSORS FIRST NATIONS PAVILION
SPOTLIGHTING ABORIGINAL PRODUCTS AND PERFORMERS AT 2005 CLOVERDALE RODEO & COUNTRY FAIR

Surrey, B.C.: The Cloverdale Rodeo and Country Fair is delighted to announce that Terasen is the official sponsor of the First Nations Pavilion at the 2005 event, May 20th to 23rd. Terasen and the Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair are now looking for aboriginal products and performers to be displayed in the pavilion.

The First Nations Pavilion will showcase authentic aboriginal arts and crafts, clothes, jewellery, traditional dancers, drummers and singers along with displays of First Nations history and culture. The artifacts and displays will be exhibited indoors and security will be paramount.

"Terasen is pleased to be involved with this year's Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair", said Bruce Falstead, Terasen Aboriginal Relations Manager.

"We're always looking for new ways to support and nurture B.C.'s First Nations community so sponsoring the First Nations Pavilion was an ideal opportunity for us. The pavilion is designed to celebrate and showcase the best in First Nations culture and traditions and we're delighted to be involved."

The Mission Indian Friendship Centre Society is the official host of the First Nation Pavilion that is dedicated to celebrate and preserve British Columbia's rich heritage and helping to keep tradition alive.
